SCHOOL-LEISURE CENTRE District Cathedral

TOPICS COVERED

- The origin of street names – The importance of guilds in the organization of the medieval city – The symbolic representations on the facades (mythology, animals, professions) – The Free City of the Holy Roman Empire of the German Nation – The capitulation of the city under Louis XIV

PRINCIPLE

- The group is divided into teams of 5 to 8 students. Each team will receive a road book that provides historical information, the itinerary to follow, and questions, as well as an answer sheet in the form of a multiple-choice questionnaire.

EDUCATIONAL VALUE

- Discovery of local heritage: exploration of the topics mentioned above to expand students' knowledge
- Development of observational skills: active visual research by students to find the answers
- Spatial orientation: following a well-defined route to strengthen observational abilities
- Team spirit: only one roadbook per team to promote collaboration

GAME PROCESS

- Welcome of the group and explanation of the game rules by our experienced supervisor
- Formation of teams, supervised by your chaperones

- Distribution of roadbooks and answer sheets
- Remote support via phone during the activity
- Collection and correction of answer sheets upon arrival
- Distribution of gingerbread cookies to students and chaperones
