SCHOOL-LEISURE CENTRE District Cathedral

This treasure hunt is aimed at school groups, school tour operators, leisure centres

The itinerary of this treasure hunt allows you to discover the picturesque alleys around the Notre-Dame de Strasbourg cathedral. The cobbled streets are home to numerous half-timbered houses of craftsmen from the past, the most famous of which is the Maison Kammerzell.

TOPICS DISCUSSED

Chronology of the cathedral construction – Recognition of craftsmen emblems (sculptors, architects) – Discovery of different architectural styles (Palais Rohan, Maison Kammerzell) – Famous figures (Gustave Doré, Alphonse Laveran).

EDUCATIONAL VALUE

The treasure hunt takes place in the form of a Roadbook which gives instructions:

- Discover the local heritage: history and anecdotes about the main buildings are developed
- Stimulate the sense of observation: the questions lead to a search for answers on the facades of the buildings.
- Developing guidance: the path to be followed is defined
- Contributing to group spirit: A single Roadbook is distributed to each team of 5 to 8 members

GAME PROCESS

- On departure and arrival, the group is greeted by our activity animator
- The treasure hunt is conducted independently under the supervision of your companions, who benefit from free participation
- The animator's mobile phone number is noted in the Roadbook to help a team in difficulty
- On arrival, the host makes corrections and distributes the traditional gingerbread to the participants and accompanying persons
